Title IX and Sex Discrimination

The District is committed to creating and maintaining education programs and activities which are free from discrimination and harassment, District Policy 3421 addresses complaints of sex discrimination, including sexual harassment, made under Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 and its implementing regulations (Title IX). It is just one component of the District's overall commitment to maintaining a discrimination and harassment-free educational and work environment.

Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any education program or activity operated by a district that receives federal financial assistance. As required by Title IX, the District does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education programs and activities or when making employment decisions.

Complaints alleging sex discrimination, including sexual harassment, that fall within the scope of Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 and its implementing regulations shall be addressed in accordance with the procedures set forth in District Policy 3421 ("Title IX") located in the Boards' Policy Manual.

Compliance Office : The person designated by the School District Board of Education to coordinate efforts to comply with Title IX.

The District's Title IX Coordinator is:

Lead Coordinator: Dr. Brigid Collins, Superintendent, bcollins@andescentralschool.org
Coordinator: Chris Aguirre, Principal, caguirre@andescentralschool.org
