SUBJECT: TUITION POLICY

Students living in another school district wishing to attend the Andes Central School District must pay a yearly tuition of four hundred ($400) for each child they enroll into the district.

Children who were enrolled as out of district students prior to June 30, 2022 will be granted the tuition rate of four hundred ($400) for the first child and one hundred ($100) for every child thereafter.

Children of employed Andes Central School staff members will be eligible for free enrollment in Andes Central School if:

- a) Class size and availability permits;
- b) The student's transportation to and from school is provided by the parents.
